

I am opposed to changing the Wisconsin no-call law to allow banks and other businesses to have greater ability to telemarket. Wisconsin's current law has eliminated almost all telemarketing calls. My telephone is for my use, not for businesses to harass my home.